Fayetteville Cumberland Reentry Council

The Fayetteville Cumberland Reentry Council (FCRC) was officially formed in January 2015 by Jessie L. Garner and Lisa Jayne, bringing together several partnering agencies from the city and the county. These organizations included representatives from Workforce Development, Cape Fear Valley Health and Fayetteville Police Department's Operation Ceasefire.

State funding was received in November 2017 making the FCRC the 14th Reentry Council in North Carolina.

Operation Ceasefire proudly continues a FREE 2018 Outdoor Movie Series for our 11th year! Get to know your neighbors and local law enforcement in a safe, fun environment for all. Outdoor movies are family-friendly so bring your chairs, blankets, family, and friends. Together we make Fayetteville/Cumberland County a great place to live. Operation Ceasefire is a partnership dedicated to reducing gun & gang violence in Cumberland County. Operation Ceasefire does NOT support the restriction of lawful and responsible firearm ownership.

Ceasefire- EKG

Educating Kids about Gun Violence

- Cumberland County Schools 7th & 9th grade Health Class beginning in 2014-2015 school year
- To date 23,491 students taught in 1,585 classrooms
- Overall violent crime for this age group has decreased 10% city wide since the program began

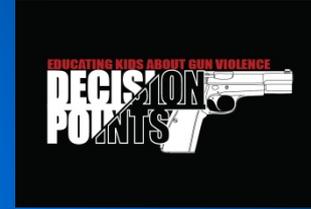

Ceasefire- EKG

Educating Kids about Gun Violence

- EKG works to prevent youth gun violence by educating students about the legal, medical, and emotional consequences of youth gun possession and related gun violence, as well as encouraging young people to consider options and choices available to them in situations involving guns.
