Subject: [POSSIBLE SPAM] Potential NCIC Hit Notification

Sent: Fri 9/13/2013 11:00 AM

You are receiving this automated email because you have checked the email notification options for "NCIC Hit Emails" on the Settings tab of your "My Account" page.

A potential match has been recorded between a stolen item listed on NCIC, and a transaction uploaded to LeadsOnline. The details for each potential hit are listed in the table below, and includes the city/state where the store recording the transaction is located. The hits are sorted with your agency's ORI#(s) on top, then Guns (NIC starts with 'G'), and finally by serial number order.

NIC#	SER#	ORI#	My Agency?	City	State
A811457050	273766576	NC0260100	Yes	Fayetteville	NC
A471478785	3D225091Q	NC0260100	Yes	Hope Mills	NC

Note: This email is generated immediately after the ticket is uploaded and a match is made, or when a new NCIC entry matches an item previously uploaded to LeadsOnline. There may also be some instances where you receive a hit off a ticket that is from a past date due to the business just now uploading the ticket.

Should you have any questions about this feature or a need for assistance with your account, please contact our Client Support Team at 972-331-6775 or 800-286-5388, or via e-mail at support@leadsonline.com. We are happy to be of service.
